Celebrating our 25th Anniversary

HISTORIC Leyburn SPRINTS

IT'S LIVE!
in Queensland

Celebrating the 1949 Australian Grand Prix on the Southern Darling Downs

For the 25th year, the Historic Leyburn Sprints takes to the streets to celebrate the township's hosting of the 1949 Australian Grand Prix. Watch more than 200 historic, classic and performance cars dating from the 1920s to the modern era race around the houses in a colourful festival of grass-roots motorsport. Meet the drivers, see the cars close-up, enjoy bush hospitality and everything this vibrant and historic former gold-mining town has to offer.

FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY!

- 200-plus magnificent cars race the clock on a challenging 1.0 kilometre street course
- Meet LEYBURN LEGENDS celebrity guests from the hey-days of Australian racing, including John Bowe, Colin Bond, Fred Gibson, Dick Johnson and more!
- Shannons Show 'n' Shine (Sunday only), showcasing more than 120 glittering road cars
- Vintage Caravan Display & Competition – re-live childhood memories with these classic vans
- Market stalls – great variety!
- Motor-racing displays
- Charity Auction
- Live music at the 1863-licensed Royal Hotel

GETTING THERE

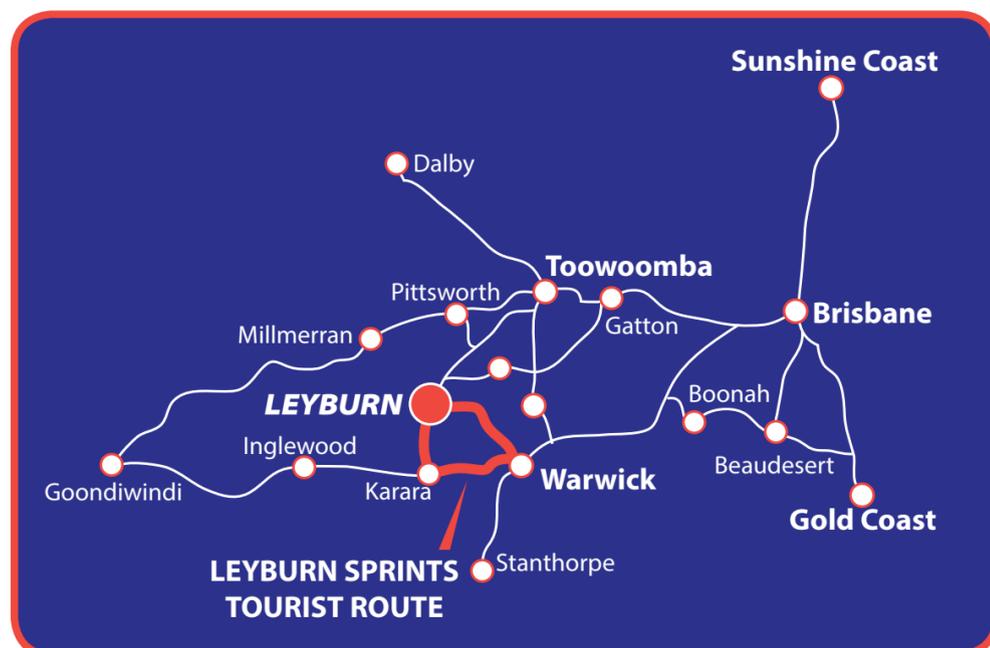

It's easy - Leyburn is less than 2.5 hours from Brisbane and 40 minutes from Toowoomba or Warwick. Enjoy a scenic drive through the glorious farmlands of the southern Darling Downs, visiting typical Australian country villages along the way. Google map link.

ACCOMMODATION

Limited overflow (unpowered) campsites available. A wide choice of hotels, motels and other accommodation is available in Warwick, Toowoomba, Clifton and other towns in the region. For more accommodation and travel tips, visit www.southernqueenslandcountry.com.au

FOOD & DRINK

There's plenty of wonderful country-style refreshment in all public areas. Licensed bars, community food stalls, coffee carts. Enjoy great food, drinks and a warm wood fire at the Royal Hotel, with racing cars parked right outside! Leyburn RSL also open on-site for drinks and meals.
